

Interlochen College of Creative Arts 2009 Instrument Rental Form

Please complete and return this form in order to reserve the use of an instrument. Availability is on a first-come, first-served basis. Prices are as follows:

Flute, clarinet, trumpet, trombone, $50
violin, viola

Saxophone, oboe, bassoon, horn $100
euphonium, tuba, cello, bass

Pianos and most percussion instruments are provided free of charge.

Institute participants/parents are fully responsible for the care of the instrument and/or accessories during the time of rental. Should the instrument be lost, stolen, accidentally or intentionally damaged, misused or abused by the participant or others, the participant/parent is solely responsible for repairs to or replacement of the instrument and case, up to the replacement value of the instrument and case. Note: Participants/parents are encouraged to insure the instrument under a homeowner's policy or other private insurer for the duration of the institute session. Replacement cost for certain instruments (especially larger ones) can exceed $10,000.

Participants are strongly encouraged to bring their own instruments and accessories whenever possible, as our selection is limited. Availability of instruments is on a first-come, first-served basis. Reeds are not provided, but may be purchased at the Interlochen Scholarship. Our mouthpiece selection is limited, so please plan to bring your own.

If an instrument rental is needed, please complete Instrument Rental Form as soon as possible to reserve an instrument. We cannot guarantee availability, and it is in your best interest to arrive at camp with your own instrument, or with an instrument reserved for rental while at camp.
